Dear brothers and sisters

Sub: Current tension and new book- Muhammad (SAW): 1001 Universal Appreciations and Interfaith Understanding and Peace

Assalamualaikum Wa-rahmatullah

The longstanding tension between Islam and the West is currently very high which has already started to misguide many of us particularly our children. We should immediately follow the teachings of Muhammad (peace be upon him) especially those which are connected to such a situation as we are now. To help us in this situation, a research was conducted involving non-Muslims and the above book is written with their 1001 appreciations for our prophetic teachings. The author of the book, Dr. Mohammed Lais has researched for three years to take the views of MPs, Lords, scholars, and Priests from diverse religious background.

This book is very well-timed Insha Allah and I do recommend reading and admire any contributions to distribute its copies free of charge to all irrespective of religions either through mosques or other means.

May Allah- Subhanahu wa-taala- direct us in His approved pathway. Ameen

Yours sincerely,

Mahmudul Hasan
